

HELLO 4TH GRADER!

Dear Fabulous Fourth Grader,

My name is MS. MILLER, and I am so thrilled that I get to be your teacher this year. At the bottom of this letter, you will find some facts so that you can get to know me better. During the first week of school, you will complete an "All About Me" poster. I can't wait to learn all about your favorite things.

This year, we will go on many adventures without ever leaving the classroom. You will become radical readers, wonderful writers, marvelous mathematicians, stellar scientists, and SUPER social studies stars. I hope you are as excited to learn many fabulous things, as I am to teach them to you.

We will spend some time on the first week working to build a positive classroom community. I want you to think about these questions, and be ready to share them with your classmates on the first day of school.

- ~What does a good classmate look like?
- ~What does a good classmate say?
- ~How does a good classmate act?
- ~What does a good classmate NOT do?

When you come to Willow Hill on September 4th, I will be waiting for you on the blacktop. I will be holding a sign that says Ms. Miller's class. Please come find me and introduce yourself
